The Town Council.

A meeting of the Town Council was held on Thursday, September 19th, Mayor Delmage presiding. There were also present—Councillors Robertson, Hurford, Cotton, Bratton, Werts and Ellsworth.

The Finance Committee reported with regard to the Banks handling the town debentures. The managers of the banks in town promised to take the matter up with their respective head offices and would advise the Council as soon as a reply was received.

A letter from the Union Bank was read stating "that it would not consider making the advances asked for unless the town had arranged for the sale of the debentures, etc."

The public works committee reported upon the selection of a site for the drilling of a town gas well and suggested the strip of land two rods wide running due east and west along the southern border of the town limits as a suitable place to drill for gas.

The report and the decision of the committee was agreed to. S.D. McCrea and B. Smith then interviewed the town with respect to granting a sum of money to the Board of Trade towards the cost of sending an exhibit to the Dry Farming Congress.

The Council decided to grant a sum of $100.

Mayor Delmage reported in regard to his trip to Inland as delegate to the Convention of Union of Alberta Municipalities, and expressed as his conviction that the Council had acted very wisely in leaving connected with the Union and in sending a delegate, and would strongly advise the same course be pursued in succeeding years, as it was a great opportunity to gain information as to what other Municipalities were doing.

Up to Wednesday, Sept. 25, no less than 89 cars of wheat had been shipped out of Bow Island this season.

Bow Island's Gas Field.

George Robinson, who returned a week ago from the Canadian northwest, is enthusiastic over the gas field now being developed at Bow Island, about 15 miles west of Medicine Hat, in the Calgary territory. Mr. Robinson went to Bow Island as the superintendent of the Canadian Western Natural Gas, Heat, Light & Power Co., Limited, and after successfully managing the construction of a pipe line system for the distribution of the company's gas supply, resigned his place to return to Independence, preferring the United States and the Mid-continent oil field to the Canadian northwest.

Mr. Robinson believes the Bow Island gas field to be the biggest and best in the United States. He has had experience in the West Virginia, Indiana and Kansas gas fields and considers the Alberta field leads them all.

The Canadian Pacific Railway company was engaged in drilling wells in search for oil for fuel on its trains when it discovered gas near Bow Island. The company had no use for gas and finally gave up the search. In its employ carrying on this research was a geologist who recognized the value of the discovery and went to England and there organized the Canadian Western Natural Gas, etc. company. A strip of territory twenty miles square was leased and drilling began. Up to this time thirteen wells have been drilled, covering an area seven miles long and three miles wide, skirting the river, and so far not a failure has marked the progress of development. The wells are 1,900 to 2,100 feet deep, have forty feet of gas, 780 pounds rock pressure and a gas flow of 12 to 15 million feet a day per well. The gas is odorless and perfectly dry. The wells are from 3,500 feet to a mile and a half apart.

The company has just finished the construction of 173 miles of gas main supplying gas now to twelve to fifteen towns, having a population of 80,000

FOR THE FARMERS

The C. P. R. Agricultural College
Train, and the Work it
Accomplished

On Saturday evening, June 28, the Agricultural College Special, run by the Canadian Pacific Railway, completed its very successful tour of the province of Manitoba. The train was on the road for 32 days, and in that time covered all Manitoba territory to the Canadian Pacific Railway. It 57 different points, visited 23,000 addresses given to 22,900 people, which included 1881 men, 7425 women and 5523 of the senior classes of the schools. The following is a brief outline of the work done on the train.

When the train arrived at each stopping place, the car containing the stock, which consisted of three pure bred Holstein cows, one pure bred Hereford bull steer, and four types of the best quality of work horses and brood mares, was placed at the unloading platform. The first talk of interest was taken by the farmers, was given by Professor Peters and Mr. Jager, his assistant. The subjects dealt with in his talks were the best types to raise in order to secure the highest price. Particular emphasis was laid on raising large heavy horses for the City market, it being shown that if a farmer went in for raising this class of stock, there would be enough money to pay for even after making his best efforts, to supply horses not too heavy for the farm, and the other would bring top prices in the City market. The trouble which was caused last year in disease in foals was gone into thoroughly by Professor Peters, and the best method of stamping out this disease was explained. Fortunately this year the death rate of foals when very young has fallen off, but it still prevails, and the farmers were eager to find out the best methods of handling the young colts.

The next stock talk on the program was milk cows. The thoroughbred Holstein cows were recommended as a particularly good type for raising on Manitoba farms, as they are dairying purposes, and the Ayrshire was also recommended. The general use of the Jersey was discussed owing to its inability to stand the rough conditions of the winter on a Manitoba farm on account of their weak constitutions. The pure bred Holstein cows were shown as being examples of almost perfect animals for milk production, rated one as being as well bred as the other two fall three being the best.

Professor Peters also pointed out as being a cow's breeding for milk production, but what would be called a "weaver" is a herd, that is, she turned her food into best instead of milk, and would produce in a year more than 2,000 lbs. of milk, while a cow of the best type of milk production would produce 6,000 lbs. per year. The points made in this connection was that the selection of breed alone was not enough but also each individual cow had to be selected for its food milking Holstein in order to furnish a good profit, should at least give eight or nine hundred pounds. One year, a price was at Dominion City last year, produced 18,000 lbs. of milk, netting to the owner a clear profit of $200.00.

The Hereford steer was shown as directly opposite to the Holstein cow. What is, all the food the Holstein cow was turned into best production. The raising of a steer for beef and dual purpose animal was discouraged. It being considered that a steer for milk or beef or both, but not to milk cows intended only for the raising of beef stock.

A short talk was also given on hog production, and the raising of pigs. After the stock-judging, Principal Hales of the Brandon Agricultural Extension in the Public Schools, and advanced students in each branch training of our teachers in agriculture, and they in turn taking up the subject in the rural districts and also in small plots for agricultural purposes being attached to each school.

school. The question of consolidation of schools was also gone into by Mr. Hales and strongly recommended for most districts.

Professor Lee also gave an interesting lecture on the identification and eradication of weeds. Farmers, who were at the meetings last year came in bringing with them weeds which they had found in their fields and which they were unable to identify, asked their names and the best way of destroying them. Mr. Lee dealt particularly with the destruction of the Sow Thistle, the Canada Thistle, Mustard, Wild Oats and Quack Grass. The farmers in the Eastern and Southern portions of the Province were especially anxious to find out the best means of destroying weeds, and the farmers to the West and North, where the weeds as yet have not made the same progress, were anxious for their identification. Some farmers did not know the Sow Thistle, although Mr. Lee was able to find it on their farms. The farmers were warned against this weed in particular, it being really the only weed in Manitoba which takes complete possession of the land, not allowing any grain to grow with it. It is also the only weed which will attack the prairie.

Mr. Harrison gave a talk on fodder crops, particularly on the planting and raising of corn and also showed how the use of corn could be raised and so much good as summer-fallowing, thus giving the farmer a valuable crop where otherwise his land would be lying idle. Mr. Harrison also spoke on the raising of alfalfa, clover and alfalfa, warning the farmers to be particularly careful to see that their land was very thoroughly cultivated and inoculated before sowing alfalfa seed.

Principal Black closed the meeting for the men by giving a strong practical talk on the general successful working of the Manitoba farm and on the necessity for every young man and woman, who intended to follow farming as a vocation, taking a course in the Agricultural College, that agriculture had to be handled in a scientific way the same, if not more so, than any other business.

The women's part of the program was first taken by Mrs. Salisbury, who gave a very useful and interesting talk on home nursing, under conditions in the home, ventilated, etc.

Professor Broderick then spoke to the women on horticulture and the best way of raising house and garden plants, ornamental shrubbery, planting of trees, laying out lawns, etc. Professor Hines gave a very interesting talk on poultry raising and egg production, showing the best methods of raising poultry, and also the correct way for handling them in order to produce the greatest number and quality of eggs, and telling the farmers' wives how to take care of their eggs in a marketing them, in such a way that the families of those eggs would be greatly increased. He also mentioned the best types for egg production, the Barred Plymouth Rock being the favorite, although the raising of most other breeds was not discouraged. The poultry on the farm was shown to be a very important part of farm work which could be made the most profitable as a side line with the least outlay.

Professors Mitchell and Crowe took up the work of dairying. Very great interest was manifested in this work by all the women, and a great many of the men. There has been so much loss to the farmers in the loss of milk, that they are now making the best grade of butter, and having their milk delivered to the city. The care of the milk and cream was gone into in detail, the best methods of handling milk and cream, and the making of butter were shown.

The senior classes of the schools at Brandon and the Agricultural College were also present. The students were shown the best methods of raising poultry, and also the correct way for handling them in order to produce the greatest number and quality of eggs, and telling the farmers' wives how to take care of their eggs in a marketing them, in such a way that the families of those eggs would be greatly increased. He also mentioned the best types for egg production, the Barred Plymouth Rock being the favorite, although the raising of most other breeds was not discouraged. The poultry on the farm was shown to be a very important part of farm work which could be made the most profitable as a side line with the least outlay.

All the meetings were opened with a short address, explaining to the farmers why the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Agricultural College were so important to the farmer, and the interest the Canadian Pacific Railway had in the welfare of the farmer, and the desire for better farming, and the interest the Agricultural College had in the welfare of the farmer, and the desire for better farming.

The farmers were also shown the best methods of raising poultry, and also the correct way for handling them in order to produce the greatest number and quality of eggs, and telling the farmers' wives how to take care of their eggs in a marketing them, in such a way that the families of those eggs would be greatly increased. Thanksgiving Day has been fixed for the last Thursday in October. Plenty of time yet to gather in those subscriptions.

A despatch from Taber says that a couple of gentlemen have received an option on the Robinson farm adjoining the town at $175 an acre, a farm which was bought a couple of years ago for $100 per acre. All other available property is tied up, and there seems to be something big in the air.

A snowstorm probably.

The officials of the Dry Farming Congress are now making arrangements to erect more buildings for exhibitors. In the main building, there are now only one space left, and for that 30 applications have been received.

Bow Island was fortunate enough to secure two spaces in the main building, a couple of weeks ago, and these are two of the best.

Prince Albert, Sask., Sept. 21.—A party of officials and officers of Prince Albert Oil and Development Co. today visited the scene of dry farming operations going on near here for natural gas. The trip followed the passing of the by-law on Saturday granting this company a twenty-year franchise to supply the city with gas exclusively. The indications so far in evidence at a depth of 300 feet are of the best and those behind the project are confident of striking gas very soon.

Apparently, Bow Island and Alberta will be the only towns in Alberta with municipal gas works. It is difficult to estimate the value that natural gas will be to our town when some of these companies with twenty-year franchises, metaphorically speaking, tucked up their coat sleeves—raise the price of gas, as they surely will do.

One of the most interesting agricultural competitions of 1912 will be the individual farmer's display of food grains at the International Dry Farming Products Exposition next week, and already the entries are in the hundreds. The competition will be for the best sheafs of wheat, oats, barley, rye, flax, emmer, speltz, buckwheat, beans, peas, vetch, rye grass, clover, German millet, Hungarian millet, Russian millet, timothy, and stalks of corn, kafir corn, milo maize, sorghum, and non-sorghum sorghum, sunflowers and sugar beet seed, together with sheafs of alfalfa showing each cutting, and in as many varieties of each grain or grass as one can exhibit that is grown by the exhibitor under dry-farming conditions, that is without irrigation of any sort. To stimulate the interest in this contest a sweepstake prize has been provided through the generosity of the Review-Broadcasting Co. of Rockford, Ill., who have donated through their Lethbridge agents, Tullberg, Anderson & Co., Ltd., an Emerson engine like harrow.

The convention of Oldfellows which has occupied so much attention in Winnipeg during the present week is an occurrence of no small importance. It is important in that it has been the occasion of the visit to Winnipeg of a great number of men of great discernment from widely separated sections of this continent, who will doubtless return to their homes with vastly different views of the Canadian northwest to those they have hitherto held.

Winnipeg has welcomed the Oldfellows with a true western hospitality, and justly so, for the representatives of this great order who have been visiting Winnipeg during the present week are of a type which is thoroughly representative of the best of the citizens engaged in the upbuilding of the continent of America. The visit of the members from across the lake has been of mutual benefit—to Winnipeg on account of the advertisement which this visit will give to Western Canada, and to the visitors through the widespread knowledge they have obtained of the opportunities which are to be found in a corner of the continent of which many of them had previously only the scantiest knowledge. The parade of last Wednesday was the largest that has ever been seen in Winnipeg, and it was a revelation of the strength of the order which organized and carried it out. The demonstration will undoubtedly strengthen the regard of Winnipeg for a brotherhood which stands for many of the highest aims in life, and whose membership is of the high standard which has been evident on the streets of the city during the week just past. Such gatherings as this go far to cement the good fellowship which should exist between two nations so closely related in blood, in character, and in traditions.—Winnipeg Saturday Post.

HOMESTEADERS KILLED.
Charles Willis, a homesteader residing near Seven Persons, was killed in a runaway in Seven Persons on Saturday.

Willis had been in the village making some purchases. He was driving down the main street, where his team took fright and bolted. He was thrown out and when picked up was in an unconscious condition. He was carried into the hotel and Dr. Smith of Medicine Hat was hurriedly called. When he arrived he found Willis in a precarious condition but little or nothing could be done for him and he passed away about six o'clock in the evening.

Undertaker Johnson of this city was called and he brought the body to the city. It is being held here awaiting word from the undertaker, man's relatives, who reside somewhere in the States.

That "Thanksgiving Day" is drawing near and those who have been engaged in gathering subscriptions for the "Review" will have a rich harvest. It will be a very pleasant duty which some of the Ladies' Aids will have in submitting their report presently. The names of that report, however, will depend mainly upon the steps that are being taken at the present time to provide for some long-felt want in connection with that church or mission. It is an easy matter for each member to get a few subscriptions—very easy, and the work entails no great labor.

The "Review" is glad to say that its circulation scheme has been taken up with great zest by several organizations. There are some, however, that are leaving the matter late, and the field will be limited unless work is commenced at once.

Several weeks, however, are available yet, and much may be done in that time.

The Harvest Thanksgiving services held at Sunnyvale church on Sunday last were successful in every way. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather there were good congregations at both services. The church was beautifully decorated, and the ladies responsible for this work are to be congratulated on the result of their efforts.

On the following Monday evening the harvest home supper and concert was held, and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Twenty adults and children sat down to a most sumptuous repast, the tables being loaded with every delicacy of the season. An auction sale was held immediately after the supper. D. Garrison being the auctioneer. Amongst the articles offered for sale was a beautifully worked auto-graph quilt. A concert followed the sale, and it was marked by the high quality of the many tunes rendered. The Rev. H. Spicke expressed the feelings of all when he cordially thanked the ladies for their untiring efforts, which had resulted in such an enjoyable evening.

Re THE HOSPITAL.

DEAR SIR,

Your article under the heading of "Wanted a Hospital" some which was at the whole town thinking. Every one would think that enough money surely someone with you the urgency of the matter, and not merely that but also the great necessity there is for such an institution and the feeling it won't prove to the town was it not possible to exceed a hospital.

While the majority of the inhabitants are healthy, there is a danger of overlooking the fact of the possibility of sickness or accident making the need of a hospital very real. It is only those who have been so unfortunate as to require hospital treatment.

Needham & Baker have an important announcement to make next week.

Review's Circulation Scheme.

Possibly nearly every newspaper in the West has at some time or other inaugurated a contest or competition primarily to increase its circulation. The popular form these contests have hitherto taken has been in the offering of a piano, gold watch, automobile, etc., to the most popular lady or gentleman in a certain district.

It is never the policy of Bow Island to follow anybody's lead and the "Review" is essentially typical of the town. We have pleasure therefore in announcing an entirely new and original scheme.

The offer made by the "Bow Island Review" is as follows: From now until Thanksgiving Day the sum of 50 cents will be deducted from every subscription of $5.00 sent in to this office, and the same will be devoted to any Church or Mission designated by the subscriber.

In other words, instead of the "Bow Island Review" spending $800 on a piano or automobile, the churches in the district will secure it. The money will thus go where, we believe, it is most needed.

Ladies' Aids and similar organizations may take the matter up and by allotting certain portions of a district to each individual member could secure quite a large amount for their church.

Subscriptions may be canvassed for anywhere, but only churches or missions in this district come within the scope of this offer. By this district, we mean that portion lying between and including Ranges 8 and 12, and between the international boundary line to the south and the Saskatchewan river north.

Every subscriber will get a receipt and a coupon. The coupon must be delivered either to a minister or to the president of the organization connected with the church, who, in turn, will forward or deliver them personally to the Review office. Each coupon will bear a face value of 50 cents, and this amount will be paid out for every coupon received. None, however, will be redeemed before October 12th, after which date they may be sent in at any time.

The above offer presents an excellent opportunity to secure funds for various purposes. A little active canvassing will possibly result in getting enough money to purchase hymn books, a new organ, form a substantial nucleus for enlargement, or again it may result in your making the present build, long more comfortable.

Write to your friends in the old country, or the States or distant parts of the Dominion. They will be delighted in being able to help you and receive a copy of a real live western newspaper regularly every week into the bargain. Remember—All subscriptions sent in must have the subscriber's name and post office written plainly, together with the name of the sender. Cash for every subscription must accompany the name.

You may subscribe for any number of years up to five, and for each year's subscription your church will receive 50 cents. Should you leave the town the "Review" will be mailed to you regularly.

Coupons will be despatched immediately upon receipt of the above.

Bow Island Exhibits

The following is a list of prizes offered by the business men of Bow Island for exhibits of farm produce shown in town on October 12th.

It's a good idea and Grassy Lake would do well to follow suit. This district undoubtedly has as fine a crop as any part of western Canada and the world should be told of that fact and it can be proven by a display at the Dry Farming Congress—Grassy Lake Gazette.

WILL INVADE SOUTHERN ALBERTA.

In the great Standard Oil combine, together with the Amalgamated Copper company, a subsidiary concern, about to invade southern Alberta in search of coal, petroleum and gas.

The construction of the Western Canada Railway, of which little has been published and on which surveyors are now working, bears out the prediction that inside of two years the great American trust will have millions invested in sunny, southern Alberta.

The giant octopus of which John D. Rockefeller is the active head, has its eyes on this section of the world for years. While it will be impossible to operate in the Dominion as the Standard Oil Co., this can be easily done by forming subsidiary companies which according to authorities on the subject has already been done.

A number of railroad surveys from Butte, Montana, were in the city last evening on route to the Peace river country where they will establish camps there for the winter for what will be known as the "Western Canada" which will come from Montana and will serve western and northern Alberta. The party left on the early morning train for the north and on reaching the capital city will outfit there for the winter.

The Standard Oil company is said to be behind the new venture and the new line will be connected up with the Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound railway, at Great Falls which is a subsidiary concern of the Standard Oil trust, thus giving the new road a trans-continental outlet.

The Western Canada will reach Lethbridge from the south and while none of the plans of the road in regard to the crossing of the Belly river have been announced, it is believed that a bridge will be erected some place in the vicinity of the traffic bridge at the river and cross at that place is considerably narrower than at any other point near the city.

One of the reasons for the road being brought to Lethbridge is the fact that the Standard Oil company desires to tap the great coal deposits of this section of the country so that new fields may be opened up for the benefit of the great copper smelters to the south.

This report is also substantiated by the fact that the Amalgamated Copper company is at present engaged in making improvements in its great plant at Great Falls, 200 miles south of here, on which they are spending several million dollars. When completed this will give that smelter a capacity of 8,000 tons of ore per day from the mines at Butte and in order to smelt this, great quantities of coal will be needed every 24 hours.

During the past few weeks representatives of the Amalgamated company have been in this vicinity inspecting some of the big coal producing properties in this section. The inspection is said to have been done in a thorough manner with the idea of the company making purchases on this side of the line.

It is also understood by the News, although there has been an effort to keep the matter as quiet as possible, that the Amalgamated company, which includes great interests in the mining, smelting and lumber districts in Montana, has had agents scattered throughout the coal mining region of southern Alberta for the purpose of securing options on coal lands and that it has been quite successful in its quest.

The Western Canada railway will also tap the gas and oil well country in the vicinity of High River and Okotoks. Petroleum in its natural state and also the refined article, as is well known, has been a particular hobby of the Standard Oil company for years and wherever these commodities are found it is not long, as a rule, before the giant octopus reaches out its long tentacles for the purpose of annexing whatever they may, notwithstanding the fact that the Standard Oil concern operates under another name and an entirely different charter on this side of the line than in the States—Lethbridge News.

Mary at the Dairy Cows

Mary drew a pair of socks from her 'till the feet; Mary's skirt was very scant and her face was sweet; Mary was a modest maid, but the day was hot; Who will know I'm wearing socks, modest Mary thought.

Mary dreamed a white-bimmed hat that became her veil; Then she o' for plumes where people buy and sell; Mary thought the people stared cause her face was sweet; But the meeker skirt and socks had declined to meet.

Good for Evil

Tommy returned, hobbling from school with a very bad black eye. But 'Til, his mother, said, for this is the morning, he said.

No, no, replied the mother, you must return good for evil. 'Til make you a nice jam tart, and you must take it to Billy Hobbs and he will tell mother how you've punished me, and she says I must return good for evil so here's a nice tart for you.

The following morning with tart in one hand and his books in the other poor Tommy hastened joyfully to school, only to return with a sore lip and a black eye, and to his mother's grief, he had blacked the other eye, and says he wants you to send him a pudding.

THE STEWARDESS

What Life Aboard Ship Means to a Woman

Many women are inclined to think that to become a stewardess on board ship is the easiest thing in the world, whereas, in reality, the work is by no means easy, nor are the conditions lightly enviable. For the right woman, the life of a stewardess is fascinating to a degree, giving opportunities of travel which otherwise would be denied to the ordinary woman; but it is most essential that only the right kind of woman shall attempt to take up such work.

More love of travel is not sufficient qualification. The stewardess must have some practical knowledge of the world, must be physically strong, and a first-rate sailor, and there must, at all times be untiring cheerfulness and tactfully sympathy.

The stewardess needs also to possess the gift of reticence, since rarely a voyage passes without some disagreeable scene being used as the recipient of the confidence of some women travellers. Preference, too, is always given to women who have had some hospital training. One time a stewardess was asked an indispensable qualification for her position on this it is to be able to take up a woman's life, while any woman who takes up the work first to take a short hospital course.

The stewardess gets splendid opportunity for travelling about the world but this is by no means synonymous with ease. The life is one of constant voyage there are few people on board who are not sea-sick, and the stewardess, and she gets very small time for sleeping. As a result of compensation, she has first opportunities for studying characters—especially those of the women who are a very diversified kind of human nature by the time she has taken a few voyages.

As a general thing, it is preferred only to appoint experienced stewardesses. The first time a woman is appointed to the position of stewardess on a ship, she is usually given a very fair average.

The pay of a stewardess is about two pounds a month, and she is expected to be a good sailor, though between voyages the stewardess has to keep herself fit, since it is the general rule to sign on at short-notice each voyage. Beyond actual wages, the stewardess makes a lot of money by tips, since it is the recognized thing for women passengers to reward the stewardess.

The amount varies, but a stewardess reckons to make from five to twenty pounds on a single voyage. Most passengers are very kind to their stewardesses, and in a sort of recognition of the fact that the life of a stewardess may be compared to that of a hospital nurse, it is equally strenuous, mentally and physically, full of an individual or all sorts of duties and with call for most self-sacrificing effort.

The stewardess always thinks of others before herself, and whatever the difficulties, must not suffer herself to lose her temper. Lost temper usually means lost work.

Shades In The Sea

Although it is common definition to call anything sea green, most people hesitate between blue and sea green when asked to say the color of the water. As a matter of fact, the quantities of blue and green sea water are pretty equally divided. If by nature green, sea-water grows blue according to the saltness of it.

Thus, the Arctic waters are as green as the sea, and the Atlantic is as blue as the Mediterranean Sea, which provides practically no fresh water at all. Beyond blue and green is the color of the sea, and the sea is colored, frequently according to the saltness of it.

As a matter of fact, the sea is a vast ocean, and no scientist yet has been able to give a reason for it. Equally mysterious are the reasons given for the sudden changes of color of the sea, which is often as happened a few years ago in the Bay of Biscay. Red and yellow seawater is comparatively well known through the Chinese Yellow Sea and the Red Sea.

Various interesting reasons are given for the waters being such colors, but scientifically the shades are declared to be due entirely to pebbles and vegetable growth beneath the respective waters.

Hats and Heat

That a hat is cooler in hot weather than no hat at all, is somewhat paradoxical. Yet it is perfectly true. Recently an enterprising gentleman experimented with different headgear to prove the same veracity of the statement. At the same time, each day and when the full heat of the sun registered precisely 82 degrees, he sat for a quarter of an hour wearing hats, inside each of which a thermally sensitive thermometer had been fixed.

In this manner it was ascertained that the coolest head-covering of record was a hat made from the best kind of Panama. This registered only 73 degrees. The straw, long-brim and ordinary straw hat fell far below, registering 80 and 82 degrees respectively. After which came the white felt Hamburg at 84 degrees.

The ubiquitous sepper reached the cellar as the bowler and morris-hat, which was the least altogether, were the farest on the list, registering 86 and 87 degrees respectively. When the sun was at its height, the thermometer registered 94 and 98 degrees.

When culverts are washed away, the road renders impotent, he not only suffers inconvenience but may also be caused financial loss by inability to get necessary supplies in time for spring planting. First Things

The best to propose the establishment of a penny (two-cent) post, a postal money order system and post office savings banks was Sir Rowland Hill, who died in London thirty-three years ago today.

The founder of the modern postage stamp was born in 1817, and went into office as Postmaster General in 1839. In the same year his money order scheme was put into effect, replacing the old system of another innovation suggested by Hill and which also came into effect that year.

EASER
HOUSE PARTYSome of the Guests Voted It
a Great Success

By VIRGINIA LEILA WENZ

The region of northern New Jersey is extremely beautiful. There are rolling hills, some of them approaching the dignity of mountains. There are splendid lakes, some of them closed in by the hills producing scenery to rival the eye of an artist.

There are country places that are veritable palaces, for many of the wealthiest and most fashionable New Yorkers have built them for their summer homes.

One of the most famous of all these localities is at Paterson, where are gathered many whose names were prominent when the state of New Jersey was a colony of King George III.

It was Easter week and Mrs. James Panton was giving a house party to one of these beautiful homes.

April was still weaving its birthday mantle, bringing the weather to a balmy temperature. The birds remained yet folded buds and song birds were not quite ready with their richest notes.

But it promised to be a prodigious spring. In the woods the bloodroot and anemone were in bloom and the violets were peeping forth from their winter's leaves.

Now and then a cardinal or scarlet tanager would flash from the cedar trees. In Mrs. Panton's garden beds yellow daffodils, the white narcissus and blue hydrangeas made sweet sights.

Of course Mrs. James Panton had gathered together all sorts of men. From the top to the bottom a full set of motor science, talking grandly of lubricators, radiators and pumps, dynamometers, magnetos and pistons to the rather old-fashioned man with a fid for the camera brought up faint on his lips and

"Ah! don't let me see those little women!"

Somehow in between these two poles of contentment and the ordinary, wholesome, every day man, Tom Ormsby, a handsome young widower, was one of them.

But although he was exceedingly popular to all his hosts' families and friends it could not be said that he was especially attentive to any one. At least not the first day.

"Hello oh," greeted Miss Chase, in dressing robe and slippers as she laid down the first of her long hair, "I'm sorry to hear that your first night."

"Well, I'm sorry to hear that your first night."

Miss Chase was a gay, enterprising beauty, all unshorn to the end of her hair, and to her particular way of thinking Tom Ormsby seemed the only eligible man who had lifted his face from the mire of life.

"What a widower! But what of that? I think always made me a widower."

"I don't know," she said to herself, "tomorrow."

However, "widowhood" was a new word to her. Miss Chase was a widow, but she had not another guest. Miss Chase was a widow, but she had not another guest.

"What is this new word?" she asked of Mrs. Panton's little lady.

"Miss Hargrave, a dead old school name," said Mrs. Panton.

"You'll like her very, very," said Mrs. Panton.

"What is her name?" asked Mrs. Panton.

"Miss Hargrave," said Mrs. Panton.

"What is her name?" asked Mrs. Panton.

"Do you remember the white girl the myrtle bed by the old grange?"

An expression of tender remembrance flitted over the girl's face, but when she heard of Miss Chase's

"That must have been long ago, and I have a poor memory."

"A heavy rain came on that night and was the beginning of a two days' deluge. It was hard on the house party."

"That dreadful girl between luncheon and five o'clock, my becoming impudently even to fascinating beauty. There were many who stayed."

Although it had been Mrs. Panton's express purpose to bring Ormsby and Molly together, never once had she recovered the gratification of finding them alone. And Miss Chase, who had been was lying in a great chair reading, half screened by pillows, out of the study door. The damper didn't take her hair out of curl, and she liked it. Mrs. Panton looked at her and she was, gave Ormsby the hint. "Make her go home."

"But her presence is so necessary to be approached and gave expression to an easy complacency of two, then her eyes dropped, and she went to the open book on her knees. It was a volume of Mrs. Panton's poems."

LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE.

If There Is No Bright Side Burnish Up the Dark Side.

A gentleman remarked to me that the true theory of life is to get on in the admiration side and not on the cynical and obsequious side of life. We believe that is sensible, says the Old State Journal. "Look on the bright side and there is no bright side left up the dark side. It is a little position that we put in our notebook more than a year ago."

It is the doctrine of bowdlerizing at everything is un-Christian. It will condemn a man as sure as profanity or lying.

WEIGHT OF A TRAIN.

The Dining Car, Alamo, Ready For Service, Weighs 16,000 Pounds.

The heaviest of all cars in a "timber" train of five is the dining car. It is ordinarily of a weight in excess of the baggage car by 10,000 or 15,000 pounds. It is the heaviest of the construction of the passenger car.

A dining section passenger car may weigh from 11,000 to 12,500 pounds, while the buffet-luggage car of the transcontinental type comes next in weight at 10,700 pounds. The baggage car, weighing 8,500 pounds, may be the lightest in a train, but the postal car next to it weighs on an average 10,000 pounds, a reclining chair car is full weight at 8,200 pounds, while the ordinary passenger coach weighs 13,000 pounds.
